

Matt Phelan is the Michigan Grassroots Manager for the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network (ACS CAN). Matt has worked for ACS CAN for the past 11 years focusing on cancer research, tobacco prevention and access to care issues. He was heavily involved in Michigan's efforts to go smoke-free in bars, restaurants, and workplaces, and worked to pass legislation to expand Medicaid through the Healthy Michigan Plan. Matt is a 2003 graduate of Western Michigan University and resides in East Lansing.

